Updated Kiddush assignments above

If you are assigned a date that you know you will not be available, please try to get someone to cover for you.

If you can't find anyone, please let the office know.

Anyone who would like to volunteer to do Saturday Kiddush outside of the Board members would be greatly appreciated!

Please call the office if you are available to help out.

OVERVIEW OF KITCHEN OPERATIONS AND KIDDUSH RESPONSIBILITIES

- Weekly Kiddush assignments are established
- Reminder call on Mondays of each week
- Questions or need help? Advise the caller!
- Refer to Kiddush information and approved list of foods provided (below)
- Rabbi Brown must approve all food brought in on or before Friday. You're responsible to contact the Rabbi in advance
- It's your responsibility to find a replacement if you're unable to do your assigned Kiddush
- Kitchen will be clean when you go to use it and must be left clean when you leave it
- Any perishable items left over must be taken home, given away, or discarded
- Put trash outside in the dumpster. Put recycles in the bin outside also. CAREFUL NOT TO GET LOCKED OUT!

KIDDUSH FOOD CHOICES

Please be sure ALL items you choose are kosher!

They must be checked in by the Rabbi before they go in the kitchen.

Please choose food from the lists below:

A Challah must be provided and whole.

Wine and grape juice must be part of your Kiddush. They are generally stocked in the refrigerator.

Bagels, Pita, Crackers, Bread

Cream cheese, Hummus, Butter, Dip, Cheese, also lactose free choices: Daiya Cream Cheeze, Kite Hill Cream Cheese Style Spread, Tofutti Better Than Cream Cheese

Yogurt, Fresh Fruit (uncut), Granola

Raw vegetables, Fresh salads (not pre-packaged), Egg salad (eggs must have kosher symbol), Tuna salad

Lox, Gefilte fish, Herring

Baked goods (pastries, cookies, cakes), pretzels, chips

Coffee, tea, juice (these are usually stocked in kitchen but please check ahead to be sure)

FYI

Shopping locally:

Wegmans, Price Chopper and Weis carry some kosher products-always check for the kosher certification

Freihofer's outlet (Vestal) has baked goods

Wegmans has Grandma's Coffee Cake and challah, gefilte fish, pita and hummus

In addition:

If one is to go to Syracuse, Costco & Trader Joes may carry various kosher products such as...

Whitefish salad, lox, gefilte fish, horseradish, herring, pastrami, corned beef, salami, bologna, turkey, pickles, kosher cheeses, baked goods, challah
