

PURIM's COMING!

Join TC and TI for some dinner, fun and cheer!

Temple Concord and Temple Israel together will celebrate Purim 5779 with an evening of food, costumes, groggers and a fun and noisy spin through an amazing chapter of Jewish history.

Please note, for your viewing pleasure... Rabbi Brown will be playing Haman and Vashti will be played by Flo Balin

Wednesday, March 20, 2019 at Temple Concord

9 Riverside Drive, Binghamton, NY 13905

Dinner → Megillah Service → Purim Spiel

Dinner: 6:00 A delicious dinner to start off the evening. We will eat in costume and then adjourn into the sanctuary to start our service.

Kosher and non-kosher dinners will be available- reservations required

NOTE: if you cannot join us for dinner, please do join us for the service and spiel.

Service: 6:45 Prayer Service in the spirit of Purim

Purim Spiel: 7:15 Megillah Madness: "A Mary Poppins Purimspiel! with Megillah Reading"
We will hear the story of Esther's triumph to save the Jews from the oh- so - wicked Haman – a "must hear" every year!

Dessert: After our spiel, we will enjoy coffee, tea, soft drinks and Hamantaschen in the social hall.

Cost: Adults: $12.00 Children: ages 3 to 12: $8.00 Under 3: free

Menu: NON KOSHER 1/4 rotisserie chicken, hot vegetable dish, potatoes; a parve vegetarian alternative (substitute for chicken) will be available. You must indicate vegetarian alternative when making your reservation.

KOSHER (prepared under rabbinic supervision at Binghamton University)-1/4 baked chicken, vegetable medley, potatoes. Separate dinnerware and utensils will be used.

All dinners include (parve): garden salad, rolls, drinks, and Hamantaschen.

Reservations are required for the dinner:
